

Camper “Character Counts” Contract

I agree to follow the rules of the YMCA Camp Duncan community by practicing the four core values, Caring, Honesty, Respect, and Responsibility. I understand that the camp staff will focus on and reward my positive behavior. I also realize that I will be held accountable for my behavior if I make poor choices, as described in the “Behavior Management Policy” section of the Parent / Camper Handbook. Our signatures below indicate that my parents and I both understand and agree to follow the YMCA Camp Duncan rules.

CARING

We care about each others feelings. We do not tease or make fun.

We take care of camp equipment so that others can enjoy it too.

We care for the Camp Duncan property by keeping it litter free.

We take care of bodies: NO smoking, alcohol, or drugs are allowed at camp.

We care for others by keeping hands and feet to ourselves. We do not hit, kick, push, or horseplay.

HONESTY

We try our best to always tell the truth.

We treat each other fairly. We play games fairly and by the rules.

We are honest with ourselves and ask for help when we need it.

We try to do the “right thing” without being told or asked.

RESPECT

We listen to our counselors and other staff members.

We follow directions the first time given, when asked to do something.

We speak to each other nicely and with respect.

We ask before touching or taking someone else’s belongings.

RESPONSIBILITY

We come to camp prepared by bringing what we need.

We leave our games, radios, make-up, and nail polish at home.

We only talk about appropriate topics and use appropriate language.

We stay with our groups and make sure our counselors can always see us.

We ask permission if we need to leave the group for any reason.
